 man in sight but is not certain as yet whether he is available or not. Until he has made his selection he will not give out any information as to Leal's probable successor.
 There will be a change hereafter in the detective department, inasmuch as the chief will not in future have the absolute run of the department, being under and personally responsible to Deputy Sheriff Rose.
 It is unlikely that there will be any further dismissals from the detective force. Leal's appointment, having already been pretty well weeded out and some of the men dismissed by Leal reappointed.

WANTS A VOTE MORE THAN DUDS

LONDON, November 18.—The suffragette imprisoned at Bristol for using a dog whip on Winston Churchill, has adopted a new style of protest against man-made laws by refusing to don prison clothes, sitting stark naked in her cell, and singing the "Marseillaise."
 Alice Paul, the American suffragette, who is doing a month's imprisonment at hard labor in Holloway Jail for breaking a stained-glass window at the Guild Hall on the occasion of the Lord Mayor's banquet to the cabinet, was forcibly fed today, after fasting for eight days.
 The suffragette leaders have taken legal advice about applying to the United States government to intervene for the protection of Miss Paul as an American citizen against British prison violence. Miss Paul comes from an old Quaker family of Philadelphia.

AEROPLANE DANCE THE VERY LATEST

PARIS, October 30.—The aeroplane dance is one of the inevitable products of the present enthusiasm for aviation in France. It is called the aerodance and is based on the movements described by an aeroplane in flight.
 The dance begins with an imitation of the aeroplane's run along the ground—a sort of quickstep with an accelerating measure. Then the dancers move their arms up and down in imitation of a bird's wings, at the same time taking a few steps forward. The air-glide of the aeroplane is represented by the dancers gliding forward with extended arms and imitating the slight swaying of the aeroplane in maintaining its equilibrium. The last movement is the "descent."
 The dancers do not sit down on the floor, but merely hop first on one foot and then on the other, at the same time bowing the head.

he found walnuts growing on oak trees. The experiment is being conducted successfully by E. M. Price, who has a large number of a new species about his home. The nuts, according to Hyatt, grow about three times as large as the ones in market. The product is the result of considerable experimenting. Grafting is done by cutting the limbs of the walnut trees and grafting them into stocky oaks.

A GOOD HOUSEHOLD LINIMENT.
 When a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm is kept in the house, the pains of burns and scalds may be promptly relieved, cuts and bruises quickly healed, swellings promptly reduced and rheumatism and neuralgia robbed of their terrors. In fact, for the household ills, it is just such a liniment as every family should be provided with. For sale by Benson Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaiian Islands.
